

A circular diagram showing a cross-section of a 3-stud California corner joint. The joint is formed by three vertical studs (brown rectangles with an 'X' inside) that interlock at the corner. The studs are embedded in a yellow structural insulated panel (SIP). A white vertical line represents a window or door frame. The diagram is enclosed in a large black circle.

3-STUD
"CALIFORNIA"
CORNER